SUBJECT: BANGLADESH'S CHIEF ADVISER REQUESTS MEETING WITH POTUS AT UNGA

REF: DHAKA 775

Classified By: CDA a.i. Geeta Pasi. Reasons 1.4 (b) and (d)

¶1. (C) Bangladesh's Chief Adviser Dr. Fakhruddin Ahmed has formally requested (via diplomatic note) a meeting with POTUS on the margins of the UN General Assembly. The request comes as Bangladesh prepares for its transformational elections in December 2008 and as the Chief Adviser and the members of his Caretaker Government seek to convince the political parties to participate in the democratic process. As reported reftel, we believe that it is vitally important at this time for the USG to support the Chief Adviser's efforts to ensure a smooth transition. In this regard, we believe a brief meeting between POTUS and the Chief Adviser at UNGA would send an unambiguous message to the Caretaker Government, political parties, and other observers that the USG is watching the situation in Bangladesh closely and wants to see a successful democratic transition in this moderate Muslim-majority country.
